Dr. Stephen Amoah, Member of Parliament for Nhyiaeso and former Deputy Minister of Finance; Hon. Sarah Adwoa Safo, former Member of Parliament for Dome-Kwabanya and former Minister for Gender, Children and Social Protection; Hon. Akua Afriyie, former Member of Parliament for Ablekuma North and former Deputy Ambassador to China; as well as Dr. Palgrave Boakye-Danquah, former Government Spokesperson on Governance and Security.

The full composition of the campaign team is attached to this release.

Chairman Wontumi expressed strong confidence in the competence, experience, and collective capacity of the team to prosecute a disciplined, issue-driven, and successful campaign, describing the composition of the team as a clear reflection of unity, inclusiveness, and growing grassroots confidence in his vision for the future of the Party.

He reiterated his commitment to a campaign anchored on party unity, organisational strengthening, grassroots mobilisation, and the broader objective of repositioning the New Patriotic Party for victory in the 2028 general elections.
